

Linux Commands

Sl. No.	Command	Purpose
1	<code>pwd</code>	Check the current working directory
2	<code>ls</code>	List files and folders
3	<code>echo "text" > file_name.txt</code>	Create and write to a small text file
4	<code>cat file_name.txt</code>	Read the complete file
5	<code>for i in {1..10000}; do echo "text $i"; done > file_name.txt</code>	Create a large text file
6	<code>ls -lh file_name.txt</code>	Check the file size
7	<code>wc -l file_name.txt</code>	Count the number of lines
8	<code>head file_name.txt</code>	Read the beginning of a file
9	<code>tail file_name.txt</code>	Read the end of a file
10	<code>rm file_name.txt</code>	Delete a file
11	<code>mkdir folder_name</code>	Create a folder
12	<code>rm -r folder_name</code>	Delete a folder and its contents